Editorial:

Hi all.

The last of the February & March Rally's have now been completed. By the sounds of it, everyone had a great time, and are now looking for an excuse to go on the next one. The 2019 planners are included in the newsletters, and are also posted on the 'world wide web'.

Queensland have their Ubobo Country Music Campout & Tag-a-long on 6-15th April. See the details on the Qld Rallies Page.

WA has 2 fantastic Tag-a-longs happening during the year. The first being Shane & Rob's Winter Goldfields Rally from 4-12th June. Spend the winter exploring WA's outback over 9 nights and don't forget your camp oven.

The second is Pete's & my "Bringing up the Rear" Rally across the Nullabor to the AGM from 6-14th October.

Further information on both can be found in the WA Rallies Section on the website.

Ulysses Club Inc—Warnbro Sounds is hosting the WA North West Rally in Denham

(Shark Bay) over the June long weekend (1-3rd June) and I've invited us along. (Pete & I are already there). So if your travelling up North, why not join the Ulysses Club Inc Rally and catch up with long lost friends, even those you haven't met yet. The flyer can be found in the WA Rallies section. Although it's not an official RV Rally, we are welcome as a group. Registrations etc., are payable to the organizers.

For those travelling in NSW, and just want something to do, there is the 'Bundanoon Highland Gathering Festival' on the 6th April, or 'the Grey Mardi Gras' on 12-15th April. Advertised as a "Festival of happiness". See <https://www.visitnsw.com/events-festivals-and-celebrations>

Or if your travelling in outback Queensland, 'The Birdsville Big Red Bash' on from 16-18th July, if you happen to be going past. Details at <http://www.bigredbash.com.au/bigredbash/index>

That's all for now. Keep the shiny side up.

KT's REPORT

by Ken Tacon

Hi All,

Welcome to another great edition of our newsletter.

The last couple months have been hectic, with organising the clubs 11th birthday party/bash at Valla Beach. What a great turnout we had, thanks to all that attended.

The next couple months also look like being a busy time with the Queensland groups tag along to ABOBO country music festival.

Then a possible trip to Deniliquin, for the NSW/VIC get together. See the Rally page on the website for more details.

Don't forget to keep your eyes open for the AGMs rego form, which should be available soon on our Web.

If you are coming, don't forget to ring the Caravan park and book your site:

Lake Albert Caravan Park on 08 85751411.

Tell them your with the Ulysses RV Group.

Hope to see you there.

Travel safe

SA Normanville Report

NORMANVILLE 8th to 10th February 2019

Normanville has such an attractive coastline and is a lovely little town, it was a bit surprising that this was our first time to the Normanville Jetty Caravan Park. I suppose that having been to neighbouring places (Rapid Bay & Wirrinya) a couple of times that Normanville has been overlooked. However I'm sure that there will be a return visit in years to come as it was very popular with the 20 or so attendees.

The group was allocated a section of the park at the southern end which was sheltered behind the sand dunes if the wind came up. A timber boardwalk through the dunes connected the caravan park to the beach. Hobbit and Vicky scored "prime real estate" in one of the unpowered areas of this section as it abutted the sand dunes, was nicely grassed and was exclusively theirs. The rest of us occupied good sized sites that even accommodated Hoppy and Pats large motorhome.

By Friday night almost everyone had arrived and settled into their happy hour(s). Although the day was warm the night became fairly cool but that didn't stop the socialising. It was great to see that couples who started joining in last year are coming along again this year – they might get to be called "regulars" if they keep attending for the next few years (only joking as they have probably attained that status now).

Saturday was a pretty restful day with some visiting local coffee shops, second-hand/antique shops or going for a tour to see the many sights in the district. There was also plenty of time to do long or short walks along the beautiful beach. And before you knew it, it was happy hour time again and more tall stories being told.

Again the group had a few day tripping visitors join us on each day, with the first being Rainman and Pearl dropping in while doing a 'reccy' in preparation for the Fleurieu Branch ride on Sunday. On Saturday it was Colin & Di (normally at these weekends but having work on their caravan prior to going away the following weekend) and Warren & Sonya. Jim and Jules visited us on Sunday while giving the big green trike a workout through the hills. But the biggest group was the Fleurieu Branch riders who we joined with for lunch at the Normanville Jetty Kiosk. This was a great idea as it enhanced what the club is all about – Ulysses members socialising together – I hope there is more of it.

Again there were a few stayers on Sunday night extending out their weekend. All in all a great weekend at a very relaxing spot approximately an hour out of Adelaide.

The 2019 program is now complete with both dates and destinations finalised. The RV AGM is in Sth Aust next year, registrations soon to be available but site bookings are being taken at the caravan park so come along and support that on

NSW Summer Rally Report

NSW Summer Rally Report

Our first rally for 2019 in Moruya along the Moruya River in the South Coast of NSW was well attended. Eighteen vans occupied the camping areas and two cabins were booked.

Having a cuppa in the local cafe, I could "spot the Ulyssean" heading South to the National Rally on the Mornington Peninsula via the beautiful coastal highway. They were easy to spot... some towing trailers, others laden with luggage, ah yes, I remember those journeys well

Thirty four attended a dinner at the Moruya Golf Club on Thursday night. A great 3 course feed for a bargain!

Friday afternoon was spent participating or watching the Ulysses Rally Olympics.

We dined at the Bowling Club on Saturday, where great value pizzas were on offer as well as a good menu to choose from. This time Thirty Seven (all rally attendees) went to dinner!

We had a few departures on Sunday morning, but most stayed on for a few more days.

(Maybe they heard about the karaoke planned for Sunday evening

And yes, Sunday evening most people gathered in the camp kitchen to share their meals with good company followed by a bit of group karaoke, toe tapping and dancing. Arvie joined us too !! 😊 share

An enjoyable first NSW RV rally shared with great company and we look forward to meeting up at either Valla for the RV birthday bash or our next rally in May at Deniliquin, or with those heading to the Ulysses National Rally, safe travels and have fun.

11th BIRTHDAY RALLY AT VALLA BEACH

NSW Valla
Beach Rally

By Bob Lucas

OK, I was conned into writing this report after President Ken got sick of listening to me whinge about my own branch never submitting reports for me to publish ... as if I haven't already got enough to do! Goodonyer Ken!

But this was a great rally, apart from a very wet start for the 10 people gathered under our awning for Happy Hour on the first Sunday. The Heavens opened, and then the lively westerly made sure there was nowhere to hide ... but despite all this the brollies came out and everyone stuck it out (well, almost everyone).

On Monday more avid travellers rolled in, and the weather was kind enough to allow them to set up, and for us all to enjoy a dry Happy Hour near the Conference Centre.

While missing some of the charm of Brooms Head, Valla Beach has its own special attractions including a tidal estuary for swimming, kayaking and fishing, a footbridge across the estuary to access the surf beach for more of the same, a great swimming pool within the grounds, tennis courts for the more adventurous, and plenty of waterside walks right at hand. OK, it's a bit of a hike up the hill to the café and tavern for those who don't like cooking – but young Barry found the 2Kms no problem at all, sometimes twice a day (you really should learn to cook, Barry!).

And it's only a 15 minute drive to Nambucca for serious shopping, or 30 minutes up to Coffs.

The camp sites are very large, amenities are good, and despite some very scattered site allotments at the start, Rose and the other staff were very welcoming and obliging to assist Ken to re-site the ones positioned close to Syberia.

Tuesday was another wet afternoon, forcing us to party under the Conference Centre veranda and rendering our gathering somewhat fragmented. But that didn't prevent us from catching up with people we hadn't seen since Boonah, or longer.

On Wednesday Ken invited us up to the tavern for dinner, and most of us went along to enjoy the great cuisine there. Meals start at a mere $7 (yep, seven dollars)! That's providing you have a drink as well, but that generally didn't present a problem. I didn't hear anything but praise for the meals.

On Thursday Ken had organised for us to head up to the Pub with no Beer at Taylors Arm. About 5 carloads of us went in convoy ... but we were somewhat disappointed to discover that the pub DID in fact have beer! It's a really iconic old pub (as is the old Talarm church at the rear), and once again the meals and prices were pretty darn good.

Friday night was the local Meat Tray raffle at the shed, run by Ross. It was well attended by locals, other campers, and of course a good-sized contingent of RV'ers, resplendent in their lovely green shirts. The RV'ers obviously spent well, as they cleaned up a high percentage of the prizes.

NSW Valla
Beach Report
By Bob Lucas

Saturday morning the girls held their Stitch & Bitch session under the Lucas awning (I know that term's not politically correct, but hey, who's penning this report!). Without the girls us fellas were at a bit of a loose end - but we did manage to find things to keep us busy J.

On Saturday night we held Happy Hour at the shed, then incinerated our preferred animals on the BBQ before heading inside and loading our plates with healthy salads so generously prepared and served by Doreen, Di, Sandy, Georgie (and maybe others – apologies if I've missed anyone).

Ken then ran our RV Group raffles with literally dozens of prizes. Hans won the coveted free week of accommodation at the park. It was a really beaut, sort of "final" get-together evening.

We look forward to meeting up again at the Lake Albert AGM in October, or maybe at earlier state rallies.

Throughout the week I heard many fond references to Rick (and Sherol) and the fantastic legacy he has set up for our continued enjoyment. It was so sad they could not join us on this significant occasion, but we thank Rick for his tireless work as leader of the group, and we join in wishing him the best possible comfort at this time of suffering.

Jill Foster Hi Bob Lucas Arvie here. I've been busy minding the house for the Foster's while they have been away at the "Compass Expedition Reunion" on their bike. A really important job Aunty Jill told me. Apparently there was no room for me in the panniers or the top box because I'm so big. But I'll be going on their next trip to Camp Allen at the beginning of April, I've been promised!

Bob Lucas OK Arvie, I'm glad yer OK :). People at the birthday bash were asking after you, seeing you weren't seen at the AGM in Boonah either. You haven't become a closet drinker, have you ...? 5d Reply

Chicken & Mushroom

Casserole Ingredients:

1 cup of raw rice (185 grams) -

Arborio or Bomba rice are idoneous for baking, but they may be expensive where you live. Try regular white or brown rice instead.

3 boneless and skinless chicken breasts

1 package of dry onion soup mix

If you cannot easily find it where you live, try preparing your own with this recipe.

1 can of cream of mushroom soup - If you cannot find it where you live, it's basically an easy bechamel with mushrooms and evaporated milk. Try to make your own and freeze it so you can use it whenever you need!

3/4 onion, roughly chopped

1 package of mushrooms, chopped (optional)

1 bundle of spinach, chopped (optional)

2 cups of water

Salt and pepper to taste

Directions

Preheat your oven to 320 F (160 C). Lightly grease a casserole and place your raw rice evenly on it. Slice the chicken and place it over the rice.

Add the chopped onion. If you're going to use the mushrooms and the spinach, now it's the time to add them too. It'll add some extra vitamins to the mixture! If you're not a fan of this combination, try other veggies instead. Just remember that when baking tomato or zucchini, you have to be careful because they add more liquids to the mix.

Mix the cream of mushroom soup, the dry soup mix and the 2 cups of water. Season to taste and pour the mixture over the rest of the dish.

Cook for 2 hours. Let it cool for 10-15 minutes before serving.

ENJOY
